

CAMPAIGN FOR ALCOHOL-FREE SPORTS TV

A PROJECT OF THE CENTER FOR SCIENCE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

NCAA Tournament Teams Have Signed the College Commitment to End Alcohol Ads on College Sports Broadcasts

246 schools in the NCAA (24% of the NCAA) and two conferences – the Big South Conference and the Ivy League -- have signed the College Commitment pledging to support an elimination of alcohol advertising on college sports telecasts. Those schools include 10 NCAA 2006 Men's Basketball Division I tournament teams:

Belmont University
Kent State University
The Ohio State University
Oral Roberts University
Southern Illinois University
University of Florida
University of Northern Iowa
University of Pennsylvania (Ivy League)
Utah State University
Winthrop University (Big South Conference)

March 2006