Healthy Food Access Theory of Change

CSPI envisions a future in which the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) supports people impacted by systemic inequities by ensuring equitable access to a nourishing food environment and equipping participants with sufficient resources to achieve optimal health and wellbeing.